

The Park at Ashford

Condominium

Sophisticated Living. Prestigious Location. Uncompromised Value.

“The Park at Ashford has everything we wanted. It’s close to work for both us, there’s all kinds of shopping and restaurants right in the neighborhood – and we get to live in this gorgeous setting. We never thought we’d get so much for this price! ”

Enjoy the natural beauty and serenity of old-fashioned Southern living at The Park at Ashford Condominium on Atlanta's prestigious north side. Enjoy the feeling of a country estate as you stroll around our two-acre lake or take a refreshing swim in the pool. Stretch out and relax on your private patio or head into town to shop, dine and dance to your heart's content. With its relaxed elegance, convenient location and affordability, The Park at Ashford offers the ease of condo-living at its very best. So whether it's a night on the town or a quiet walk on our lushly landscaped walkways shaded by half-century old trees – it's all right at your fingertips at one of Atlanta's most desirable addresses.

“The park is right across the street and the landscaping is just beautiful year-round. That makes it easy to unwind, no matter what the week was like.”

“We could practically walk to the stores at Perimeter Mall... but then how would we get all this stuff home?”

Nestled in this private 18-acre setting along prestigious Ashford Dunwoody, you'll forget how close you are to Perimeter Mall, the Northside Hospital Complex and medical offices, the W Hotel and many other retail and business centers.

“I just feel so at home here. I love the space and the light. Some weekends, if I didn't need to pick up groceries and a movie I wouldn't go out at all.”

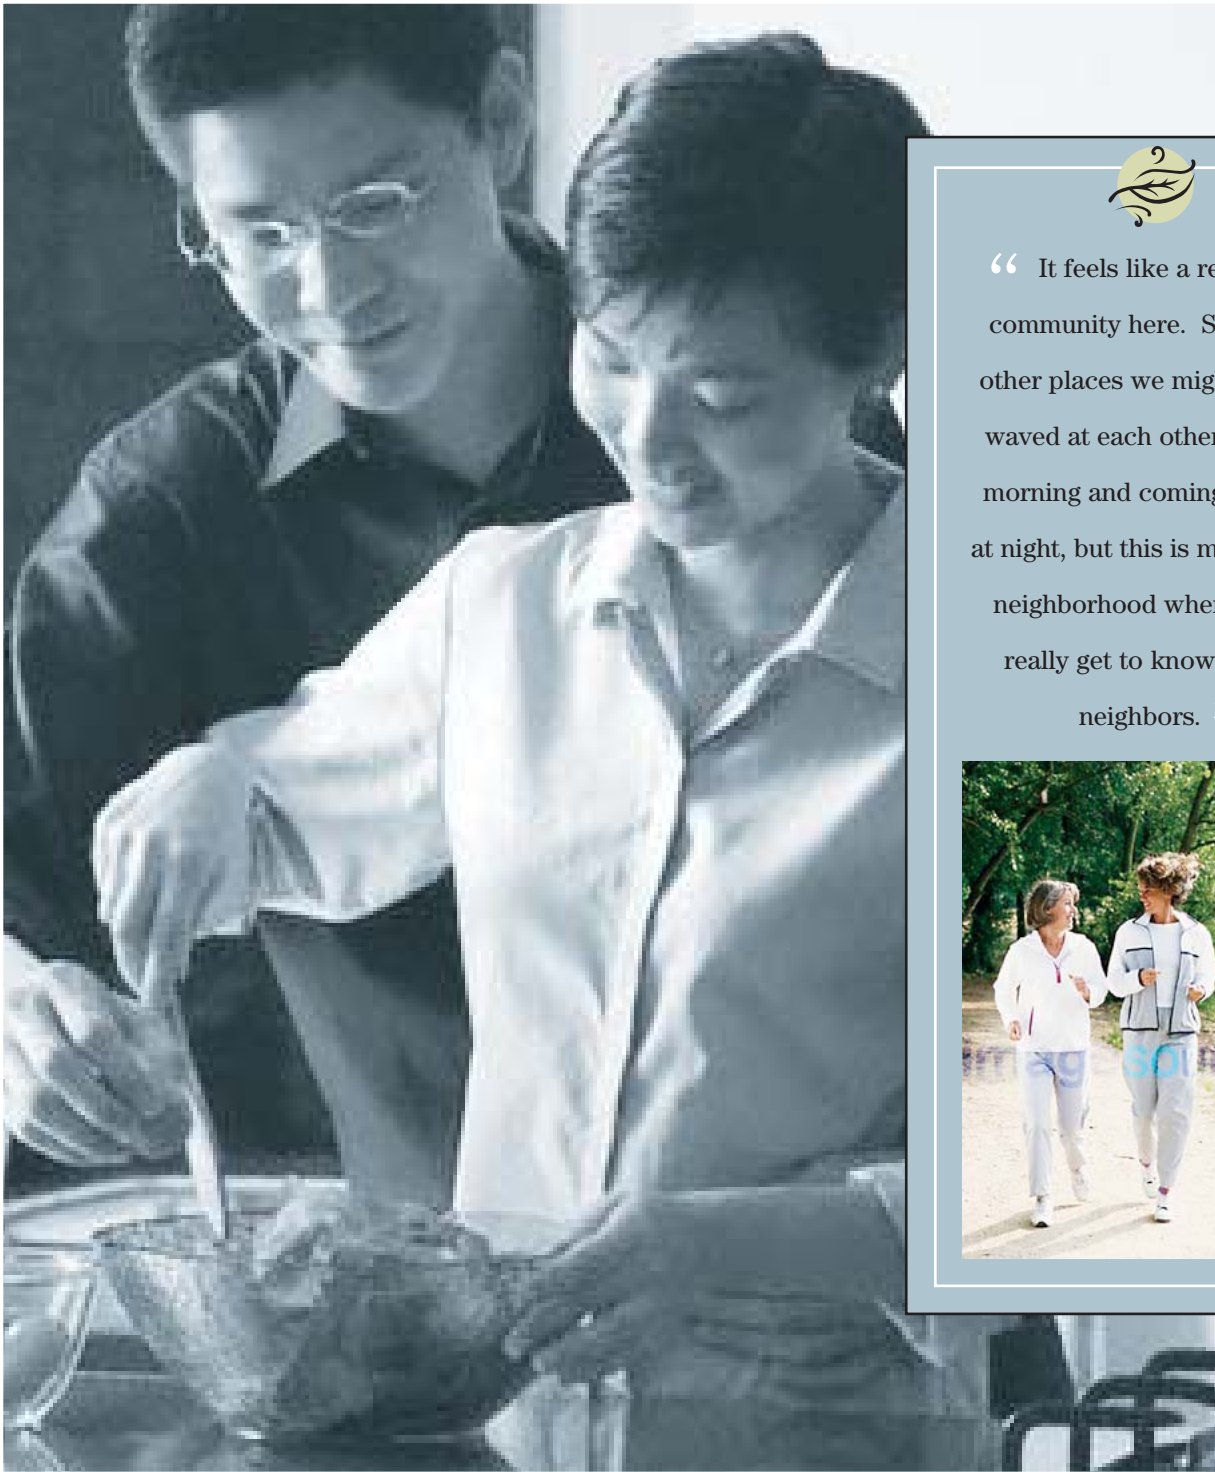

Need more room to run? Blackburn Park is across the street and Murphy Candler Park is only minutes away. Getting anywhere else in town is a breeze with I-285 literally “just down the road”. Our bright, spacious one-, two- and three-bedroom homes offer a combination of natural beauty, easy access and value you won't find anywhere else. They give you the perfect blend of exciting in-town energy and accessibility with the space and simplicity of suburban living. It's all here at The Park at Ashford Condominium!

“We like to think of living here as our own private little oasis right in the middle of everything.”

Sophisticated Living. Prestigious Living.

“ It feels like a real community here. Sure, in other places we might have waved at each other in the morning and coming home at night, but this is more of a neighborhood where you really get to know your neighbors. ”

ocation. Uncompromised Value.

